Description

ATELIERSTRAAT 228 – TILBURG

An Apartment That Instantly Feels Like Home.

Welcome to the Ketelhuis in the Spoorzone – once the beating industrial heart of Tilburg, now a thriving hotspot for urban living. This brand-new apartment has everything it takes to make you say, "Yes, this is it." Light? Check. Comfort? Check. A location that never gets boring? Double check.

You'll be living in a building full of history, but completely future-proof: an A+++ energy label, heat pump, underfloor heating, a brand-new kitchen, and floor-to-ceiling windows. Oh – and it's never been lived in. You're the first to turn this blank canvas into your own masterpiece.

THE SPOORZONE – WHERE IT'S ALL HAPPENING

The LocHal around the corner, RAW almost downstairs, De Houtloods next door, Spoorpark just a short walk away... Welcome to the Tilburg everyone's talking about. And yes – Tilburg Central Station is less than a minute's walk from your front door.

Soon, even the Ketelhuis itself will feature its own hospitality spots. That means: stepping out without really having to leave. Love that.

THE FLOW THROUGH THE HOME

ENTRANCE

You enter into a bright, tidy hallway – just the right size, with space for a coat rack that won't trip you over your own shoes.

On your left? The bathroom.

Walk a little further and you're right in the living room.

To the right of that passage is a storage/utility room, neatly tucked away but easy to reach. It holds the heat pump and washing machine hookup – everything in place, no hassle.

LIVING ROOM – WALL-TO-WALL LIGHT

Step into the living room and you'll feel it immediately: this space glows. Thanks to those extra-large windows, the room is flooded with daylight.

Morning sun? Check. Evening glow? You bet.
And the view over the Spoorzone? Always inspiring.

KITCHEN – READY TO COOK AND IMPRESS

On your left, the brand-new kitchen awaits. Complete with induction hob, combi-oven, and dishwasher. Sleek, stylish, and practical – now all you need to decide is what’s cooking on day one.

BEDROOM – YOUR MORNING SPOT WITH A VIEW

To the right of the living room you’ll find the bedroom, upgraded during construction for that perfect finish. And the view? Overlooking the city centre and St. Dionysius Church – the kind of view that makes waking up feel romantic every day.

BATHROOM – SIMPLE, FRESH, FUNCTIONAL

Clean white tiles, a modern hanging toilet, a walk-in shower, and a sink. Bright, efficient and ready to use.

STORAGE SPACE

In the utility room: everything technical out of sight, and space for your washer and dryer.

BIKE STORAGE & SHARED ROOFTOP TERRACE

At the back of the building, there’s a shared bicycle storage with charging points for e-bikes. And don’t forget the rooftop terrace – the perfect place for a quiet coffee, a good book, or just a breath of fresh air.
