Description

For rent: Characteristic apartment with roof terrace and parking space in the historic Broederhuis in Hulst

In the monumental Broederhuis, in the center of Hulst, we offer this spacious apartment of approx. 99 m² for rent. This special building, with a history dating back to around 1550, combines authentic elements with contemporary living comfort. A unique opportunity to live in a location where history and modern convenience come together.

Location

The apartment is located in the heart of the historic city center of Hulst. Here, you live within walking distance of shops, restaurants, and other amenities. The lively environment combined with the characteristic appearance of the building makes this a very attractive residential location.

Layout

First floor

Via your own front door, you reach the spacious hall with access to the various rooms.

The bright and spacious living room is finished with a stylish laminate floor and offers plenty of space for a comfortable sitting area and dining area. The modern kitchen is fully equipped with high-quality built-in appliances, including an induction hob, dishwasher, and combination oven/microwave.

From the hall, you have direct access to the private roof terrace – a nice place to sit outside in peace and enjoy the fresh air.

The bedroom is spacious and offers enough space for a large bed and closet space. The adjacent bathroom is practically furnished and equipped with a shower and toilet.

Outdoor space

The apartment has a private roof terrace. In addition, there is a private parking space behind the building, so you are assured of parking in the center.
